Category #1 : Forward Drills

Category #2 : Neutral Zone

Title : Transition passing sequence #2

Content elements :

Components:

Key points :

Description

The second sequence of this ice hockey drill encorporates one more pass. The drill operates the same way but now the passes need to be made slightly quicker. The first player will pass the puck to the first player in the other line receive the puck right back and then make another pass before transitioning to the boards. Everything else in the drill is the same as in sequence #1.