1 V 1, 2 V 2, 3 V 3

Time: Station:

Objective: A competitive small area game that progresses from 1 v 1, to 2 v 2, to 3 v 3, then back down to 2 v 2, and 1 v 1. Players should work to attack and defend quickly and be aware of who is joining and leaving the game.

Description:

- 1st whistle: the first two players go in the zone and play 1vs1 cross-ice.
- 2nd whistle: two new players come in and they play 2vs2.
- 3rd whistle: it becomes a 3vs3.
- 4th whistle: the first two players leave the game, so it becomes a 2vs2 again.
- 5th whistle: the next two players leave the game after the fifth whistle.
- 6th whistle: the game is over.
- Coaches keep score!

Points of emphasis:

- All players - be aware of who is joining and leaving the game.
- Defenders:
  - Good stick habits - keep the stick on the ice to block passing lanes and angle players to the outside.against the offensive non-puck carrier.
- Forwards:
  - Look to make quick passes and shots.

Content licensed from the International Ice Hockey Federation. All content © IIHF