2 V 1 KEEP AWAY

Time: Station:

Objective: Players practice puck carrying, puck support, and puck protection.

Description:

- Players play 2vs1 keep away in the circle.
- The attacking team tries to make as many passes as possible while the defender tries to steal the puck.
- If the defender steals the puck they protect it while the opponents try to steal it back.
- Keep track of # of passes and # of takeaways.

Points of emphasis:

- Players without the puck should be aware of where the defender is and skate to open areas of the ice.
- Players without the puck should have the stick on the ice, ready for pass.
- Players with the puck should work on puck protection and using deception to create passing lanes.
- Defenders should keep their stick on the ice and work to stay between the 2 forwards.

Variations:

- Can be set up in different areas of the ice.
- Can set up multiple playing areas or just one.
- Depending on the size, can be 2 v 1, or 3 v 1, or 3 v 2.
- Can make the playing space just the circle or can play in different setups like below:
  - 2 v 1 Corner Passing
  - 2 v 1 Point Passing

Content licensed from the International Ice Hockey Federation. All content © IIHF